2025 RELEASE UNDER E.O. 14176

WOOD, Donald E. owner's son and salesman	Rifle- Aeromarine	SA Shanahan
II-15	On Friday, 3/29/68, early afternoon, Wood returned from lunch and observed U. L. Baker, another salesman, completing sale of a rifle to unknown man. Rifle was Remington, Model 700, caliber .243 Winchester, with 2x-7x Redfield Scope. Baker mounted and bore-sighted scope. Man also bought 20 rounds of .243 norma ammo. (This descriptive information obtained from sales slip prepared by Baker.) Purchaser left store with gun in cardboard box used by Browning Manufacturing Co. because, with scope, rifle would not fit into Remington box. Man also took empty Remington box.

2025 RELEASE UNDER E.O. 14176

Either later that day or early next day, man called on phone and said that, after talking with his brother, he decided he wanted a Remington, Model 760, 30.06 caliber. Wood said that exchange would cost an extra $5.00.

Approx. 9 am, Saturday, 3/30/68, man returned with the rifle he purchased still in Browning box. Wood stated that he would switch the scope from the rifle to a model 760, but it would take until 3 pm and to bring original Remington box for storing first rifle. Wood gave him the model 760 in, he thinks, the Browning box. Wood did not ask for $5.00 because in changing scope he used weaver base and rings rather than redfield base and rings which made up cost difference. Wood exchanged the .243 ammo for 30.06 ammo, which, he believes, was Peters pose lokt, 150 grain, 20 rounds per box. Man left store carrying gun in the cardboard box. (Wood's statement does not say whether Wood switched the scope but implies that purchase did not return. Description of purchaser: approx. 5'8", 150 to 160 lbs, dark hair, wearing dark business suit with white shirt and tie, medium complexion. Gave name as Harvey Lawmeyer, 1907 South 11th Street, Birmingham, Alabama. Man stated his age was 36.

WOOD, Donald F.		Aeromarine	SA Barrett Saucier
II-19	Wood asked whether we could identify a customer who purchased a gun case for a Varmint model rifle on 3/29/68. Invoice revealed that there was such a sale made out to cash, but Wood recalled that purchaser was a regular customer named John, a white male, about 25 years, 5'10", 170 lbs., long black hair. Wood recalled selling to this man a Browning pistol about 2 1/2 years ago. Wood's records revealed this man is John Webster DeShazo, 17 Montevallo Lane, Mt. Brook, Ala. Wood made available 3 weapons identified by DeShazo as having been handled by man who purchased a rifle and scope on 3/29/68.
